

Bill Mack and the Twins Unveil Calvin Griffith on September 3rd at Target Field.

A statue of Calvin Griffith, the first owner of the Minnesota Twins was unveiled on September 3rd outside the Target Field. The ceremony was joined by Twins fans as well as baseball legends, Harmon Killebrew, Rod Carew and the Griffith family.

Bill Mack was commissioned to create larger than life statues of Minnesota's three Hall of Fame inductees— Kirby Puckett, Rod Carew, and Harmon Killebrew, to be installed outside of Target Field.

Now that the four icons have been placed, Bill Mack is not finished as the Twins and the Pohlad family (current owners of the Twins) have also commissioned Bill to install a similar bronze statue of Carl and Eloise Pohlad later this Fall. A location for the unveiling has not yet been determined.
